- A Time to be Silent Much of the time we live trapped inside a hectic, mechanical lifestyle, getting up to the sound of an alarm clock, battered by news from the radio, tested by traffic, forced to calculate time and distance to the minute, going through the day using phones, lifts and gadgets, then going home again at the end of the day, through more traffic, with more news being shouted at us. It is only when we make time for silence and for prayer that we give ourselves a chance to remember who we really are and what life is really about. (Sr. Stan Kennedy)
