- Our parish pilgrimage to Mount Melleray takes place this Sunday (June 06th). If you haven't signed up but are interested in joining us, just turn up in Mount Melleray at 3.30 p.m. It takes about an hour to drive from our parish (Take the N25 to Dungarvan and just before Dungarvan take the N72 to Cappoquin. From there take the R669 towards Clogheen and The Vee, but take a right turn at the Cats Bar. Pass Melleray Grotto and travel for about 1km to the gates of the monastery). We will meet outside 'The Cloisters' Restaurant and Tea Rooms at 3.30 p.m. before taking a look at the audio/visual presentation. There will be an opportunity to spend time in the souvenir shop and/or the coffee shop before joining the monks for prayer at 5.45 p.m. after which people are welcome to spend as little or as much time there as they want before leaving. Safe journey to all.
- In 2012, the 50th International Eucharistic Congress will take place in Dublin. The Congress takes place every four years in a different country and Ireland has been blessed to be chosen as the next host country. Lots of preparation (in terms of adult education and catechesis) will take place throughout the country in the months ahead, and the whole event, with its preparation, will cost lots of money. Your donation to the Eucharistic Congress collection today will help the organisers to assist us in developing our faith and welcoming a multitude of visitors to our country in 2010. If you forgot about the collection there is a yellow envelope for the 'Eucharistic Congress' in your box of envelopes at home and your generosity would be greatly appreciated. Further information on the conference from www.iec2012.ie
