- Questions people ask by Fr Silvester O’Flynn OFM Cap. Email: silvesteroflynn@gmail.com
Question: May I receive Holy Communion twice in the same day, for instance if I attend two funerals?
Answer: I quote the Catechism: ‘The Church warmly recommends that the faithful receive Holy Communion each time they participate in the celebration of the Eucharist’. (#1417) So, if you attend Mass twice, or even more often, in the same day, it is warmly recommended that you receive the Blessed Eucharist as the completion of your participation with the Lord. The law which restricted people from receiving no more than once a day came in when people were going from one altar to another for Communion without taking part in the full ceremony.
- Another Good Reason not to mess with Children! A school teacher was discussing the Ten Commandments with her five and six year olds. After explaining the commandment to “honour” thy Father and thy Mother, she asked, “Is there a commandment that teaches us how to treat our brothers and sisters?” Without missing a beat one little boy (the oldest of a family) answered, “Thou shall not kill!”
- Last week’s Parish Collection: Masses €463.66 & Envelopes €354.90. Thank you for your continued support.
