- Questions people ask - Fr Silvester O'Flynn OFM Cap. Email silvesteroflynn@gmail.com
 Q. I was abused physically and emotionally by a very violent father during childhood. How can I be expected to regard God by the title of Father?
 A. You might use some other name such as Lord, or Maker or simply God. Since it was Jesus who instructed us to call God our Father, pray to Jesus to heal that unhappy association which inhibits you. Jesus never meant the Father to be understood in an authoritarians sense, much less in an abusive way, but as the loving source of life, the giver of talents, the merciful one who forgives the prodigal son with a celebratory banquet.
- Last week's Parish Collection: Masses €467.07 & Envelopes €540.20 Thank you for your continued support.
