- Dunhill Multi-Education Centre is running a 10 week programme with skills on how to “Beat the Recession”. The aim is to help people learn how to stretch their money by reusing and recycling items, mending and repairing items and how to make nourishing meals on a budget. There’s also a workshop on CV preparation and interview skills. This programme is fully funded by the Department of Social Protection and eligible participants must be in receipt of a social welfare payment. Details from the Centre on 051-396934 or www.dunhilleducation.com.

Question: In a recent newsletter you wrote about adult religious education. Are there any books you would recommend? Answer: Top of any list must be the astounding story of Jesus Christ in the Gospels and other New Testament writings. Scriptural commentaries will enrich your reading. The Catechism of the Catholic Church is a wonderful compendium of our religion. It has four parts: what we Believe (creed); the celebration of Faith (liturgy and sacraments); Christian behaviour (morality); and a beautiful section on Prayer, especially the Our Father. A simplified version of the Catechism, called YOUCAT, is now available. Any bookshop can get it for you.
- Last week’s Parish Collection: Masses €609.94 & Envelopes €1456.05. Thank you for your continued support.
