- Children Learn What They Live: If a child lives with criticism, he learns to condemn. If a child lives with hostility, he learns to fight. If a child lives with ridicule, he learns to feel shy. If a child lives with shame, he learns to feel guilty. If a child lives with tolerance, he learns patience. If a child lives with encouragement he learns confidence. If a child lives with praise, he learns appreciation. If a child lives with acceptance, he learns to love. If a child lives with approval, he learns to like himself. If a child lives with recognition, he learns it is good to have a goal. If a child lives with sharing, he learns generosity. If a child lives with honesty, he learns truthfulness. If a child lives with fairness, he learns justice. If a child lives with kindness and consideration, he learns respect. If a child lives with security, he learns to have faith in himself and in those about him. If a child lives with friendliness, he learns the world is a nice place in which to live. A Reminder for us of the need to pray daily for our children.
