- Last weekend Pope Francis announced that Mother Teresa be elevated to Sainthood, months after he approved a second miracle for the late nun and Noble prize winner who was known as the “Saint of the Gutters”. The canonisation of Mother Teresa was hailed for her work with impoverished and dying people of Kolkate, India. It had been highly anticipated by supporters and will be a highlight of the Jubilee Church’s Year of Mercy.
Mother Teresa spoke of a man her sisters picked up from the gutter. With worms eating away at him, they brought him back to their home and cared for him. He said, ‘I have lived like an animal in the street, but I am going to die like an angel, loved and cared for’.
Mother Teresa said ‘I used to believe that prayer changes things, but now I know that prayer changes us and we change things’.

- The Diocese is pleased to announce that we now have a new facebook page Diocese of Waterford and Lismore.
- Prayer for the New School Year Thank you God for this new school year. Help me to use it well by doing my best. Open my mind to everything I am taught this year. May I give the teachers attention and respect. May I give the other children courtesy and kindness. Be with me as I learn and as I play. Guide me in all that I do and in all that I say. Amen.
- On Forgiveness An old woman in the village was said to be receiving divine apparitions. The local priest demanded proof of their authenticity. “When God next appears to you,” he said, “ask him to tell you my sins, which are known to him alone.” That should be evidence enough. The woman returned a month later and the priest asked if God had appeared to her again. She said he had. “Did you put the question to him?” “I did.” “What did he say?” He said “tell your priest I have forgotten his sins.” Is it possible that all the horrible things you have done have been forgotten by everyone...except yourself?
- It’s Good to Laugh .. Ninety-Year-Old Morris goes to his GP for a check-up. A few weeks later, the doctor sees him in the street with a gorgeous looking young woman on his arm. “You’re really doing well, aren’t you?” he tells the elderly gent. Morris replies. “Just doing what you said doctor: ‘Get a hot mamma and be cheerful’.” “No,” says the GP. “I said, you’ve got a heart murmur – be careful.”
- Last week’s Parish Collection: Masses €447.72 and Envelopes €757.20. Thank you for your continued support.
