- ...thought for the week If you wouldn’t write it and sign it, don’t say it.
- Press Release: In 1816, the Ursuline Sisters came to Waterford and established family ministry and schools at St. Angela’s and St. Ursula’s. This year, we celebrate the unique contribution the Sisters have made to countless young women and their families, through education in the Ursuline tradition, from Waterford and beyond. You, who were so cherished in our schools, are invited to be part of our Bicentenary celebration. Our celebrations will culminate in a concelebrated Mass for the combined schools, invited guests and members of the wider community on the 7th October. This will be followed by lunch for 500 guests at 2.00 p.m. in St. Angela’s. Come and celebrate with us! Enjoy an amble through exhibitions and displays, depicting the rich history of the two schools. Be there for the launch of our new book, charting the journey of the Sisters and the role that the schools have played in Waterford. Come and share your memories and stories with former teachers, friends, colleagues and classmates. Mass will be held in the Church of the Sacred Heart, The Folly, on October 7th at 12.30 p.m. Afterwards, entry to lunch is by Luncheon Pass only, obtainable in the School offices or the Convent. Please register your interest by emailing office@ursw.ie or 051 876510. Admission is ticket only.
- It’s good to laugh.... The Pope After getting all of Pope Francis’ luggage loaded into the limo, the driver was startled to hear the Pope say he would like to drive as he is never allowed to do so. Hesitantly the driver agrees and swaps places with his Holiness. The driver quickly regrets his decision as the pontiff accelerates to 105mph. The pope takes no notice of the driver’s pleading to slow down until he hears sirens behind them and decides to pull over. On arrival, the cop looks into the car, takes one look at the Pope, goes back to his motorcycle and gets on the radio. ‘Chief,’ he says to the dispatcher, I have stopped a limo going at great speed. ‘So bust him’ says the chief. ‘I don’t think we want to do that; he’s really important’ says the cop. ‘All the more reason.’ ‘No, I mean really important,’ says the cop. ‘What’d ya got there, the Mayor?’ ‘Bigger’ reports the cop. ‘Governor?’ asks the Chief. ‘Bigger’ says the cop. ‘Well,’ said the Chief ‘who is it?’ ‘I think it’s God’ says the cop. ‘What makes you think it’s God?’ ‘He’s got the Pope driving for him!’
- Last week’s Parish Collection: Masses €409.36 and Envelopes €567.00. Thank you for your continued support.
