- As you may already be aware, the Road Safety Authority’s Memorial Service marks ‘World Day of Remembrance for Road Traffic Victims’ 2016, an UN initiative to remember victims of road collisions internationally. This day gives us an opportunity to remember those who have died on our roads and the families, friends and communities who have been devastated by their loss and also we remember those who have survived with life altering injuries. This year, we have tragically already seen 146 lives lost on our roads. It serves as a stark reminder to us all to consider what we can do to prevent more loss of life on our roads this year. A ceremony to remember all victims will take place in the Woodlands Hotel, Waterford at 2.00 p.m. As part of the ceremony you are invited to bring a framed photograph of your lost loved one. Family members will also have an opportunity to say a poem or prayer to remember their lost loved one, a candle ceremony will also take place. Others in attendance on the day will include representatives from the Road Safety Authority, An Garda Síochána, Emergency Services and road safety support organisations.
