- Serving God It is for God we serve the poor and not for thanks!
- A Lenten Reflection There is no point in walking without a destination. Lent is our journey with a goal. It points us to our destination. But how do I reach you Lord and put my steps in yours? I risk becoming self absorbed or running after distractions. I might be tempted to go in another, less demanding direction. Renew in me today the call of my baptism. Orient my life towards the Easter Sun, Which cuts through the fog, clearing my path. In the Lenten season that awaits, May your Word be a light for my footsteps. May I enter into that still place where I may meet you on my walk...
- Last week's Parish Collection: Masses €395.14 and Envelopes €445.00. Thank you for your continued support.
