- Our Lady at the heart of Pope Francis' 2017 World Youth Day message. In his message for this year's Diocesan World Youth Day, which takes place today Palm Sunday, Pope Francis has told young people that the Church and society needs their courage, dreams and ideals. Pope Francis said, "Here we are, on the road again, following our great meeting in Kraków, where we celebrated the Thirty-first World Youth Day and the Jubilee for young people as part of the Holy Year of Mercy. We took as our guides St. John Paul 11 and St. Faustina Kowalska, the apostles of Divine Mercy, in order to offer a concrete response to the challenges of our time. We had a powerful experience of fraternity and joy, and we gave the world a sign of hope. Our different flags and languages were not a reason for rivalry and division, but an opportunity to open the doors of our hearts and to build bridges.
