Last weekend we bade a fond farewell to Fr. PJ Breen, who has ministered in our parish for the past two years. During that time, he was involved in many different aspects of parish life, such as officiating at weddings, funerals and baptisms. As a parish we have greatly benefited from his wisdom and experience as a Carmelite priest and we are deeply grateful to him for his valuable contributions and insights. As he returns to his community in Dublin, we wish God's blessings on him for the future.
