Diocesan Pastoral Plan 2019-2024

The Diocesan Pastoral Plan “Go Make Disciples” was launched at three centres in the Diocese last week, Clonmel, Dungarvan and Waterford . The Waterford launch was in St. John’s Pastoral Centre on Wednesday. Over 200 people attended each meeting. The Plan is called “Go Make Disciples”. The primary strategy is one of evangelisation. The Alpha programme is a key component in the process of evangelising and it is hoped that Alpha programmes will be rolled out in every parish in the diocese. The other significant development is the establishment of Pastoral Units as a new form of leadership and governance in the diocese. A Pastoral Unit is a grouping of 3 or 4 parishes under the leadership of a priest working together as a team with the priests to serve the mission. It is envisaged that lay people will become members of that team. Copies of the Pastoral Plan are available from the Parish Office.

Joy of Faith Camps will be held in the Diocese during the month of July.

The camps aim is to give children the opportunity to experience the love of Jesus and to experience the joy of faith through Catholic Mass and prayer, music and dance, sport and games, drama, arts & crafts, bible stories and most importantly, lots of fun!

They will be begin each day at 10.00 am and finish at 3.00 pm. The camp is open to boys and girls between the ages of 5yrs to 14yrs.

Cost €40 for first child and €20 per additional siblings.

Tramore Camp 8th to 12th July – Olivia Elliot 086-3438467.

All camps will be operate in accordance with the Diocese of Waterford and Lismore safeguarding policy.

The Diocese is delighted to announce a Liturgical Music workshop in September with Dr. John O’Keeffe, St. Patrick’s College, Maynooth. This workshop is for singers, choirs, musicians and all who are interested in music in the liturgy and will take place in St. John’s Pastoral Centre, Waterford on Tuesday 17th September at 7.30 pm. Dr. John O’Keeffe, Director of Sacred Music in St. Patrick’s College, Maynooth will be leading the workshop, which will last approximately 2 hours. The cost of participation is €15, which will include a copy of his book, “Feasts and Seasons 2” (with CD). The book and CD will be a great asset to any choir member. Anyone interested in attending the workshop should please confirm by email to marydee@waterfordlismore.ie or by phone to the Pastoral Centre – 051-874199.

Best wishes to the children and young adults finishing school and collage this week. May these summer days be good days, as they grow ‘in wisdom, age and grace’. Please God this will be a safe time too, as young people play and work. May they take good care and be safe.
