Copper Coast TradFest Launch
 This will take place today Sunday, from 4.00 pm to 6.00 pm in the Dunhill Community Hall. There will be lots of traditional music and dance and there will be an award ceremony for the winners of a competition in the local national school. The official launch is by the Dublin based, traditional music celebrity Mike Dunphy originally from this parish. It will be a lovely Sunday afternoon family event and is free of charge, come early to be sure of a seat. The Copper Coast TradFest proper runs from Friday April 17th to Sunday April 19th. Check out ticket availability on www.coppercoasttradfest.org

The Annual Door-to-Door Collection by the Dunhill Lourdes Committee will be held during the coming weeks. Your support to help send pilgrims and helpers to Lourdes in June would be greatly appreciated.

Lent: Think Trocaire. The customary Trocaire boxes are available at the Churches. This is the Irish Church reaching out to people less fortunate than we are. A way of exercising some self-denial.

Ecumenical Service in St Joseph, St Benildus & St Mary's Parish. You are invited to a special ecumenical evening of prayer, scripture, reflection, music, blessings and hospitality on Wednesday 11th March from 7.00pm to 8.00pm. All are welcome.

Thought for the Week ...
 In the game of life, if you break the rules, the rules will eventually break you.

The 2020 series of the Dunhill History Lectures comes to an end this Thursday 12th March, in the Dunhill Multi Education Centre at 8.00 p.m. The grand finale speaker will be Julian Walton with a surprise in store. The lecture lasts about an hour, is followed with chat and light refreshments.

Please take the newsletter home with you or to a neighbour / relative or friend.
