- Suicide or Survive (SOS) is an Irish charity focussed on breaking down the stigma associated with mental health issues and ensuring that those affected have access to quality recovery services that are right for the individual. They are working to build a society where people embrace their mental health wellness and those with difficulties are treated with dignity and respect, and experience a service that offers them hope, a safe place and a positive future. A Wellness Workshop takes place on Tuesday 1st September in the Park Hotel, Dungavan from 9.00 a.m. to 5.00 p.m. These workshops aim to help people understand, take charge of and take responsibility of their own mental health. The workshop can be of benefit to anyone who is interested in mental health and wellness. For more information contact Liam Brazil on 087-2119203 or 1890 577577 or by email jacqui@suicideorsurvive.ie
- Nominations are now open for the annual Irish Heart Foundation “Life after Stroke” Awards. These awards celebrate the incredible courage and determination of those affected by stroke. They are also an opportunity to recognize the unfailing commitment of the families and carers who work tirelessly to help stroke survivors rebuild their lives. Presentations will be made in November at a gala ceremony hosted by MC Marty Whelan. To nominate someone you know, contact Emma-Jane 01 6346925 or go to www.stroke.ie. Closing date Friday 11th September.
- “Does your spouse have dementia?” We are carrying out research looking to gain an insight into the health and wellbeing of those who live with someone who has dementia. For more information about taking part please contact Alan Galvin or Dr. Maria Pertl at Trinity College on 01-896 8414.

- The Lawyer’s Payment. Walking along by the Four Courts in Dublin, a man finds a bottle. He rubs it and a genie appears. “I’ll grant you three wishes,” the genie says. “There’s just one condition. I’m a lawyer’s genie, taking a break from a government tribunal, so for every wish you make, all the lawyers involved get the same thing, only double.” After thinking for a moment, the man says, “For my first wish, I’d like €10 million.” “Lawyers will get €20 million” the genie reminds him. “What else do you want?” I’d love to have a red Porsche.” He says. Instantly the car appears. Two for the lawyers. “What’s your last wish?” “Well, I’ve always wanted to donate a kidney.
